

YardScaping

Improve your landscape with healthier soils and reduce the use of pesticides, fertilizers, and water in caring for your lawn and gardens.

View over 40 fact sheets with recommendations for sustainable yard care practices on the Cumberland County Soil & Water Conservation District's YardScaping website.

Scan for YardScaping
information

Amending soil ♦ Erosion control
Groundcovers ♦ Grubs
Infiltration steps
Invasive plants ♦ Live staking
Mowing ♦ Native perennials
Pets & our lawns
Pollinator gardens
Septic systems ♦ Shrubs
Vegetative buffers
Watering wisely
Xeriscaping ♦ Yard waste

www.cumberlandswcd.org/documents-1/yardscaping

Why YardScape?

- Protect and improve water quality
- Create wildlife habitat
- Improve your yard's resilience to pests and drought
- Protect yourself, pets, and wildlife from chemicals and toxins
- Create a low-maintenance yard, saving you time and money
- Contribute to a more sustainable regional landscape

YORK RIVER
WILD & SCENIC

